On Friday, July 27th the Monmouth County Board of Chosen Freeholders held a dedication ceremony of the "Senator Joseph M. Kyrillos Bridge" in recognition of Senator Kyrillos's thirty years of dedicated service to Monmouth County and the State of New Jersey.

The unanimously approved Freeholder resolution to rename the West Front Street Bridge was proposed by Freeholder Director Thomas A. Arnone. "The dedication of this bridge in honor of Joe Kyrillos is fitting since he helped secure an additional $7 million in funding that assisted the County in completing its reconstruction in 2016," said Arnone in a County-issued press release. "Joe has always been an outstanding supporter of County infrastructure projects and we cannot thank him enough for his service and commitment to Monmouth County residents."
