

Middletown Celebrates Read Across America Week

Mayor Tony Perry and Committee members Kevin Settembrino and Pat Snell were invited to visit local elementary schools this week to participate in Read Across America, a nationwide event that celebrates reading and imagination.

Mayor Perry visited the 4th grade Social Studies class at Lincroft Elementary School while Committeeman Kevin Settembrino and Pat Snell were Mystery Readers at River Plaza and Village Elementary Schools. The Township Committee is honored to be part of this important program that inspires children to foster their love of reading.

RallyCap Sports Hosts Final Basketball Session for Special Needs Community

On Saturday, February 23rd, RallyCap Sports, an organization that provides recreational sports specifically designed for children and young adults with special needs, held its final session of basketball for a total of 95 children and young adults at Thompson Middle School. Mayor Tony Perry was honored to cheer on participants and hand out trophies while chatting with families and volunteers. RallyCap Sports has been serving thousand of people with special needs in Middletown and Monmouth County for over 29 years. We thank them for providing an opportunity for children of all levels and abilities to enjoy sports!

Three Young Men Achieve Eagle Scout Rank at Age 15

Committeewoman Pat Snell congratulated Troop 246's Eagle Scouts Zachary Jenkins, Patrick Fitzgerald and Raphael Kon along with their Scoutmaster William Jenkins.

Committeewoman Pat Snell attended a special Eagle Scout Ceremony on Sunday, February 24th at the Red Bank Elks Lodge.

Troop 246 celebrated the accomplishments of Patrick Fitzgerald, Zachary Jenkins, and Raphael Kon for the service projects they did to achieve the rank of Eagle Scout at the young age of 15 (it's typically 18).

All three scouts built something to benefit our community. Patrick constructed several picnic tables and benches, including handicapped access, for the Lincroft Little League. Zachary designed and built a movable chicken coop for Oasis Farms, and Raphael created and built a donation pantry for The Back Pack Crew.

We congratulate these young men and look forward to seeing what their futures hold!
