

Middletown Township Committee Introduces 2021 Budget with 0% Municipal Tax Rate Increase

The Middletown Township Committee introduced its $84.4 million budget with a zero percent municipal tax rate increase at the Monday, May 3rd Township Committee Workshop Meeting.

The proposed 2021 municipal budget represents an ongoing commitment to minimizing costs while maximizing tax dollars and services. Despite a loss in revenue due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the municipal tax levy is less in total dollars than in 2020.

“The Township Committee and Administration collaborated to find creative ways to reduce our overall expenses through streamlining efficiencies, shared services, and pursuing grant opportunities,” said Mayor Tony Perry.

Through the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, Middletown was allocated $3 million to be used over the next year to mitigate the impact of the pandemic. “Once it is clear what exactly the stimulus package can be used for, we will make strategic decisions about how to best utilize the relief funds,” said Deputy Mayor Rick Hibell.

Shout-out to the "Heroes Helping Heroes" at the Heroes Cafe at Bayview!

Mayor Tony Perry, Committeewoman Pat Snell, and Middletown Township Police Department Chiefs stopped by the Heroes Cafe at Bayview Elementary School on Thursday, May 6th for some tea and coffee. Mrs. Amy Jennings, a special education teacher at Bayview, and her students decided their New Year's resolutions were to perform acts of kindness for their community, which is how they came up with the idea of the cafe.

The students sort orders and prepare ready-to-brew cups for the teachers and staff at Bayview for free. Staff members can pay this act of kindness forward by donating to No Limits Cafe, a Middletown-based cafe that employs individuals with developmental disabilities. So far, the Bayview Heroes have raised $1200!

The motto of Heroes Cafe at Bayview is "Heroes Helping Heroes" and that is exactly what the students and staff at Bayview Elementary School do. Click HERE to watch a video of these heroes in action.

Thank you for the delicious drinks, Heroes Cafe at Bayview!

Mayor's Wellness Campaign Activity: Family Bike Ride on Saturday, May 15th at 3 PM

MAYOR'S WELLNESS ACTIVITY
5/15 FAMILY BIKE RIDE: MEET AT MCMAHON PARK | 3:00PM

FREE for Middletown residents! Signup required, walk-ups allowed as space permits:
WWW.MIDDLETOWNNJ.ORG/SIGNUP

MAYOR'S Wellness CAMPAIGN, MIDDLETOWN RECREATION, MIDDLETOWN ARTS CENTER, SUSTAINABLE JERSEY

For this event, all participants will need both a bike in working order, as well as a helmet. This ride is an "out-and-back". We will be riding along the Henry Hudson Trail, part of the Monmouth County Park System. The ride will start at McMahon Park in Middletown, then head west for approximately 3 miles. We'll take a water break, then ride back to our starting point. The ride, out-and-back, should take approximately one hour.

All levels are welcome - including training wheels, bike kid carriers, and more! If skills or levels vary drastically, we may split the group for a more advanced pace or a more leisurely, little-legged cruise.

Free for Middletown residents.
Signup is required, walk-ups are allowed as space permits.

Apply for The MAC One-Act Play by Monday, May 10th

THE MAC ONE-ACTS

ONE-ACT PLAY FESTIVAL

SUBMISSION DEADLINE

May 10th, 2021

middletownarts.org

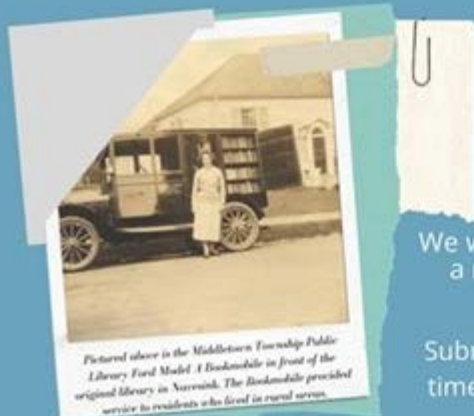

MAC has missed in-person theatre so much and is excited to bring back The MAC One-Acts, an in-person one-act play festival featuring original works by local playwrights! After an incredibly successful virtual festival last spring, MAC is taking this year's event outdoors and in person. Join MAC on June 4th and June 5th at 7:00 PM at MAC's outdoor canopy space for two intimate evenings of readings!

MAC is now accepting submissions to The MAC One-Acts! It's time to dust off that abandoned script or bring to life that new idea that's been percolating. MAC will pick six finalists to have their pieces read aloud by actors in front of an in-person audience in MAC's outdoor space.

The deadline to apply is May 10th at 11:59 PM.
Finalists will be selected on May 14th.

Click HERE for more information. Click HERE to fill out the submission form.
